

The Royal Australian Historical Society in conjunction with the Charles Sturt University Regional Archives, Wagga Wagga and District Historical Society and Wagga Wagga and District Family History Society present

WAGGA WAGGA REGIONAL SEMINAR

Officers, Australian Joint Stock Bank
Wagga Wagga, 1875
[RAHS Manuscript Collection]

Friday 1 August
(8:45am - 5.00pm)
to
Saturday 2 August
(8:45am - 4:30pm)

Blakemore Building, South Campus,
Charles Sturt University, Hely Avenue,
Wagga Wagga, NSW

RAHS Members - $25/day or $45/both days
Non-Members - $30/day or $50/both days

Bookings Essential

Call History House: (02) 9247 8001 or email: history@rahs.org.au

For more information visit: www.rahs.org.au/events

Lectures and workshops include:

Land research, multicultural local history including Italian, German, Chinese migrants and their presence in Australia's nineteenth century view of history, Lebanese families in the Wagga Wagga area, Wellington's men in Australia, history in the virtual world, occupying the land – different types of tenure, Charles Sturt University Regional Archives collection, Chinese migration and settlement in the Wagga Wagga area and the Romany in Australia.